

From the Pastor

Rev. Karen Bunnell, Senior Pastor

Dear Friends,

Just a few days ago I returned from this year’s Women’s Retreat exhausted but happy. It was a wonderful weekend filled with reminders of God’s great love for us all – especially the women on the journey together for those few days of the retreat. Surely the most moving part of the weekend was hearing the testimonies of our four wonderful speakers. It takes courage to stand up in front of nearly 80 people and share your story, but they all did it and did it incredibly well.

One of the things they all had in common was that they acknowledged God’s presence with them on their journey and how important it was for them to know that they had the love and support of family and friends. And that’s what I want to remind you of as we enter the month of February, the month we spend a lot of time thinking about love!

All of us, like those four women, need love and support as we go through life’s journey. We need to be there for each other, and not just think about ourselves all the time. It’s a terrible thing for someone to go through a tough time and think no one has their back, or is praying for them, or is just a phone call away. So I invite you during this “love month” of February, to keep an eye out for someone who might need a little extra love and support – and then reach out to them. You might be the only one who does, and in so doing, you will be the hands and feet of Christ in their life!

Grace and Peace,
Karen

Missions Update

Submitted by Michael Foster, Chair

The Missions Committee welcomes back current members:

Stephanie Darron, Charlotte Mehosky, Nancy and George Leathrum

And welcomes new members:

Kelly Eddinger, Deb Kain, Jane Kovicak, Bethany Buckley

The first meeting of the Missions Committee for 2018 will be February 1. The Missions Committee and its members will continue to provide financial and other support to the various groups in our local community, as well as nationally and internationally. We are looking forward to our many church members contributing their time, money, sweat, and in one case their 'blood', in serving the needs of adults and children in our local, national, and international communities. Some of that support will be directed at such causes as our spring and fall Blood Drive, the Delaware Brain Tumor walk, maintaining the EUMC cabin at Camp Pecometh, and our Fall Food Fest stocking the shelves of the Immaculate Conception Church food bank. They will continue to provide our long standing support to the annual Kentucky mission trip and look forward to our 2nd trip to Costa Rica* (see below). We also need to consider support to the areas of West Virginia, Houston, and Puerto Rico that have been devastated by flooding from the hurricanes of last year.

The Missions Committee is very thankful to all those in the congregation that provide financial support to these worthy causes.

*Joe Tanner writes- Our two mission trips to Costa Rico in 2017 made a terrific impact on the men, women, and especially the children living in Rio Cuarto and on their faith in God. It also made an amazing impact on those who were part of the mission team. We are planning another trip this year and hopefully, will be able to include more youth and more of you with us and with much gratitude, your continued support.

Help Fill our Next Round of College Care Packages

Several times a year we send a package of goodies to our College Students to remind them that we're thinking of them and wishing them the best. The next package goes out on February 18th, and we need your help to fill it! Please bring your donation of goodies (granola bars, hot chocolate mix, microwavable mac 'n cheese/soup, gum, candy etc.) to the donation box in the Welcome Center area. It will mean so much to our college students!

New Study

Are you a parent trying to figure out how to raise your child(ren) in today's society while still instilling good Christian morals? If so, join the Light of Faith class this month as they begin a new book Fearless Parenting. They meet in Room 34 on Sundays at 9:45 am.

“In this hopeful book, world-renowned researcher George Barna and nationally respected counselor Jimmy Myers offer parents a plan of action to raise healthy, godly children in a morally bankrupt culture. If the parents of this generation want to see their children grow up with their faith and consciences intact, they cannot afford to simply react, making it up as they go along. They must approach their responsibilities to parent their children with intentionality and consistency. This eye-opening book helps them do just

Easter Eggs and Candy

Easter is just around the corner, and that means we are asking for donations of individually wrapped candy for our annual Easter Egg Hunt. We are also asking for donations of new or gently used plastic eggs, as many of ours are broken from many years of use. Donations will be collected starting February 25, 2018 in the box near the welcome center.

Vacation Bible School Volunteers

The education department is beginning the search for volunteers for VBS. Vacation Bible School will run June 24, 2018, through June 28, 2018. We need volunteers to lead groups, stations, and in the kitchen. If you are interested in volunteering please see Katie Sparks for more information.

Acolyte Sign-Ups

If your child is in kindergarten or a higher grade we would love to have them join the acolyte team! If your child is interested in becoming an important part of the service in this way, please email Katie Sparks for more information. Katharine.gravatt@gmail.com.

Youth News

Submitted by Sandy Wherry, Director of Youth Ministries

We wish to thank all those who helped with the Progressive Dinner: Kristen & Phil Czarnecki, Stacey & Kevin Foreman, Jane Kovicak, Jerry McNabb, Ron & Nancy Fetterolf and TC & Liz Hook. The dinner was wonderful!

Eight families contacted the church this year for Christmas help. The Boy Scout troop helped to provide for a young man and his family, several members and friends of the church helped with provisions and the youth spent time wrapping all the gifts for the children. We are so thankful that we were able to be a part of this important mission, especially at Christmas time.

February Events:

February 2nd - Joy of Faith (3rd & 4th) - we pray that all of you will make an effort to attend and hear from our two speakers: Kevin Reilly and Dickie Noles.

*youth dinner will be held @ EUMC - following dinner we will set up for the Joy of Faith.

 there will be NO meeting Sunday evening (2/4)

February 11th - meeting @ 5 pm to prepare for the Valentine's dinner for our parents and volunteers (dinner guests should arrive @ 6:30 pm for dinner).

February 17 & 18 - tentative overnight retreat - location to be announced. Begins at 8 am for breakfast - NO Sunday evening meeting.

February 25- regular youth group from 5:30-7:30 pm.

Boy Scout Sunday

We'll be welcoming members and friends of our Cub Pack 443 and Boy Scout Troop 443 to our worship services on Sunday, February 25th – Boy Scout Sunday! They'll be assisting as Gospel readers, ushers and greeters – and they'll also be offering their always wonderful Pancake Breakfast all morning long! So plan to help support their activities by coming to the Pancake Breakfast on February 25th! We look forward to celebrating Scouting with them that day! We're proud to be their chartered organization!

Finance

Bill Ferringer, Chairman

The financial position of EUMC for the year 2017 is negative ($4,698). Even though the year finished negative we had started the year with a budget negative of ($19,700). We improved on this by $15,002 with slightly higher income and holding down expenses.

Income is up from the budget by $1,852. Expenses were down from the budget by $13,150.

Income for the year was up from the budget by $1,852 as shown below:

1. Offering Income - ($2,525)
2. Rental Income - $175
3. Youth Income - $1,579 (Mainly reimbursement for Youth trips)
4. Interest & Dividend Income - $908
5. Miscellaneous Income - $1,715

Expenses were down from the budget by $13,150 as shown below:

1. General Expenses - $1,161
2. Pastor and Associate Pastor Expenses - $585
3. Staff Expenses - $2,647
4. Ministry Program - $3,002
5. Education Program - $1,809
6. Other Council on Ministry Expenses - $2,327
7. Air Conditioner for Office - ($2,300)
8. Utilities - $2,450
9. Insurance - $191
10. Fire Security System - ($505)
11. Building Maintenance - ($112)
12. All other Building Expenses - ($619)
13. Parsonage Expenses - $2,514

The Building Fund received $77,831 in contributions and paid out $9,400 in interest on the loans. Total balance on hand at the end of the year is $192,322. The loan balance is $235,000.

Other support from our church members include the purchase and payment of $106,500 new organ.

And, the support we received for Hurricane relief was just overwhelming. We received over $16,000 for this relief effort. Thank you so much for your support in 2017.

As I always say, Elkton United Methodist Church continues to be an exciting place to be and is "A place to know Jesus, be known by Jesus, and make Him known to others." And everyone is important.

Attention Administrative Council Members!

Don't forget that the annual Planning Retreat for the Administrative Council takes place on Saturday morning, February 10th from 8 am - 12 noon in Weldin Hall! Leaders of ministry areas: please be sure that if you cannot attend, someone else from your committee will be there to represent you! All Ad Council members: please email eumc@comcast.net to let us know if you will be there, and if not, who will attend in your absence.

Wired Word Discussion Group

Submitted by Rev. Ray Graham

The Wired Word discussion group will now meet on the first Thursday of each month beginning February 1st at 7 p.m. and in a new meeting place - the Conference Room in the Wesley Wing. February's discussion will be the tax bill passed by Congress that is causing concern in the church and nonprofit community because it raises the standard deduction, a move that will cause fewer people to itemize their deductions on their tax returns. Many believe that this will lead to an overall reduction in charitable giving. We're going to focus on what the Bible tells us about generosity, stewardship and the religious obligation to give. Everyone is welcome!

Music Ministries

Submitted by Sharon Williams, Organist/Coordinator of Music Ministries

Our children's choir will be singing for the 11:00 a.m. worship services on the 4th Sunday of the month February-April and on Mother's Day in May. Our 8:30 a.m. congregation will miss seeing you and hearing you sing for them.

Rehearsals will begin soon for the chancel choir cantata for Lent. The title of the cantata is "Who Do You Say That I Am?" by Lloyd Larson. Check the Sunday bulletin for rehearsal dates and times. If you are not a regular member of the chancel choir and you may be interested in singing with us, the chancel choir, Steve and I would love to have you join us for this very moving cantata. The cantata will be presented during both worship services on March 25th.

Happy Valentine's Day (Ash Wednesday) to everyone.

Holy Communion Date in February

Because the Joy of Faith weekend takes place on the Sunday we usually celebrate Holy Communion together, we will have a change for the month of February. It will be served instead at the Ash Wednesday service on Wednesday, February 14th at 7 pm in the Sanctuary. Of course, you can always receive communion any Wednesday evening of the month at 6:15 pm in the Chapel!

Lenten Lunch and Learn

Pastor Bunnell will once again be leading a class during Lent. Lenten Lunch and Learn will be held in Weldin Hall on the Wednesdays of Lent from 12:00 noon until 1:15 or so. The first class will take place on Wednesday, February 21st and the last one will take place on the Wednesday of Holy Week (March 28th). There will be bulletin inserts during worship on which you can sign up to take part in the study or you can sign up by sending an email to eumc@comcast.net or calling the church office at 410-398-0933.

Ash Wednesday Service

The season of Lent begins on Ash Wednesday, February 14th. We'll mark the beginning of Lent by worshipping together that evening at 7:00 in the sanctuary. The service will include holy communion and the imposition of ashes. Make plans now to attend this service and mark the beginning of a holy journey through Lent.

The Season of Lent

Lent is the season that walks us on a journey through Jesus' life from the time just after he was baptized, and encountered the devil in the Wilderness of Temptation, up to the moment his crucified body was laid in the tomb. It lasts for forty days plus Sundays, and is a penitent and contemplative time, a time when we refrain from saying or singing "Alleluia" and from applauding in worship. It is a somber, yet holy season during which we remember the tremendous and painful price Jesus paid for us and for our salvation.

Lenten Devotional

Once again, a devotional for you to use during the holy season of Lent has been prepared by members and friends of EUMC, under the leadership of Sandy Lavelle. Using these devotions as part of your daily time with the Lord will enrich your journey through the contemplative season of Lent. Don't forget that the devotional is also available online through our church website (elktonumc.org). Make a commitment this Lent to draw closer to the Lord! Let our devotional help you!

Classic Christians' February Meeting

The February meeting of the Classic Christians (age 50 & over) will take place on Friday, February 16th at 6:30 p.m. in Weldin Hall. The night will begin with a potluck dinner (bring a dish to share) and then continue on with a fun-filled Game Night (bring your favorite board or card games). To participate, sign up on the sheet across from the Welcome Center.

Isaiah 55:9 For as the heavens are higher than the earth, so are My ways higher than your ways, And My thoughts than your thoughts. (NIKJV)

JOY OF FAITH, FEBRUARY 3RD AND 4TH !!!!!

Hopefully you've already bought your tickets and have your calendar marked for a great weekend. Our committee has been working very hard to make everything come together. It starts February 3rd with the Saturday morning prayer breakfasts starting at 9:00 am. Please check our church website for the addresses and to sign up – there is still time! Our dinner will begin at 5:00 pm in Weldin Hall, tickets are $10/adult; $5/children (10 and under); and $30/family (max of 6). Tickets can be purchased through the church office or at the door. The show will be held at 7:00 pm in the Sanctuary, our guest speaker will be Kevin Reilly, former Eagles football player, and Sunday morning Dickie Noles, former Phillies baseball pitcher, will be our guest speaker at both services. Please invite your families, friends and neighbors; both speakers are extremely interesting. We look forward to seeing you all for another great event this year.

On the Road Again!

Don't forget that the Classic Christians are hitting the road again in April for their spring bus trip! This year they're heading off to the Norfolk, VA area to take part in things like the Virginia Tattoo (a massed gathering of military bands), a NATO parade, a tour of the Norfolk Naval Base, and much more. There are still seats left on the bus, so it's not too late to be a part of the fun! A flyer containing all the details is on the counter across from the Welcome Center. If you have already signed up to take part, don't forget that by now, you should have paid your second installment, and your third installment will be due soon as well.

2017 EUMC Cookbook Sales

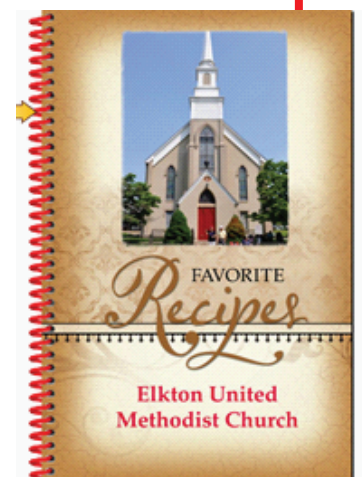

Submitted by Nancy Crawford

Your Communications Committee has been busy selling our new "Favorite Recipes" Cookbook for the past couple of months following each service and at some of our special events, and lots and lots of you have purchased them already!!! Many of you bought them for Christmas presents as well as getting your own personal copy. Our cookbook is loaded with 300 delicious recipes – some of which you know pretty well thanks to pot luck dinners and our annual Cookie Walk! We do know how to cook...and eat!!!

We have sold a total of 193 cookbooks to date – selling them mostly after each service and at a couple of events up until December 17th which gave folks a chance to give them as gifts if they wanted.

As we head into the New Year, we will be selling cookbooks at special church events like the Joy of Faith dinner on Saturday, Feb. 3rd. And we also aim to sell them at some community events where our church will have a table set up, as well as an occasional Sunday after worship, which we will announce in advance. But keep in mind they will be available to buy all throughout the year. If you want any, just ask Nancy Crawford or any member of the Communications Committee, or let Kay Mortimer in the office know so she can pass your request along to us.

Thanks to all of you who supported this effort with your purchases – so far – and to all the great cooks who contributed recipes and made it possible!

Stewardship Committee Update

Submitted by Ellen Gruebel, Co-Chair

As we write this update for the February newsletter, our first meeting occurred after the deadline. After we do some brainstorming, we'll have more to say about our committee's plans for the coming year. Just a refresher that we had a successful book fair last year and donated many books to local nursing homes when the fair was over. We also had a wonderful turnout and generous donations for our 5K Run in October in honor of Reverend Jim Jones and in support of efforts to cure dementia and Alzheimer's diseases. More to come in the next newsletter!

Thank You From the Altar Guild!

Submitted by Krista Gilmore

Many thanks to the faithful stewards who have willingly shared their time and gifts of creativity to ensure our sanctuary shines. Through their acts of service, our worship experience has been richer and more meaningful. Our deepest appreciation to the following members and friends:

Wayne Scholz ... for using his carpentry skills to repair the cross and candle stand.

Laurie Alphin ... for using her artistic ability to create mini-stop sign tokens, which were distributed on Kick-Off Sunday.

Ron and Nancy Fetterolf ... for preparing a beautiful cornucopia display for Thanksgiving.

Ron Fetterolf ... for assembling (and cleaning!) the Advent candle wreath.

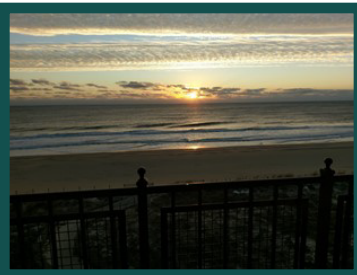

Anne and Paul Humphrey ... for working their magic on the Advent decorations (and thanks to many of the choir members who were "recruited" to help as well!).

Bill Alphin, Phyllis Bixler, Rich Juergens, Charlotte Mehoskey, and Connie Muller-Thym ... for contributing beautiful water photographs for the worship display in January.

And last of all, but not least, to our head ushers (Murray Thompson, Rich Gruebel, Frank Diebert and Charlie Campbell) for their assistance and patience!

8th Annual EUMC Women's Retreat

This year's Women's Retreat was a wonderful success! 79 women gathered at the beautiful Dunes Manor Hotel in Ocean City MD to spend time looking at three Biblical women – Esther, Ruth and Mary Magdalene – as they considered the theme "Ordinary Women/Extraordinary Deeds." Thanks go to all who made the weekend so special – our inspirational speakers – Nancy Leathrum, Sue Johnson, Kristen Czarnecki and Ellen Gruebel; our "actors" Sandy Lavelle, Ellie Kelly and Celeste DiSciullo; as well as the actors in our opening skit – Patty Corder, Kim Artrip, Celeste DiSciullo and Marge Jacobs; our tech person Sandy Lavelle; our music leader Laura Young; our crafts leaders Laurie Alphin and Liz Hook; our yoga instructor Bethany Buckley; and, of course, the ones who pulled it all together – the Women's Retreat Planning Committee – Nadine Allen, Gail Garber, Ellen Gruebel, Barb Pinder, Laura Young, Betty Sprague, Celeste DiSciullo, Sandy Lavelle, and Pastor Bunnell. Even though we just finished this year's retreat, we invite all women of the church to put the dates of January 18-20, 2019 on their calendar for next year! It will be here before we know it!
