FROM THE PASTOR

Rev. Eric Warner, Senior Pastor

In our everyday routines it is easy to become complacent in how we see the world. We oftentimes travel the same roads. We encounter the same people. We enjoy the same restaurants and prepare the same meals. We have the same hours, the same doctor appointments, or watch the same TV shows. However, as a child it seemed like I was discovering something new and exciting every minute. Little things surprised me like a little bug or a sparkly rock. I collected rocks that I still possess. Now they just look like normal old rocks, but I must have seen something special in them when I was little. I long to see the world through those eyes of wonder again – to see the acts of our wondrous God and be surprised even by the little things. Have you lost your wonder?

The scriptures remind us to be amazed, to wonder, to always be in awe of our awesome God. The psalmist in Psalm 77 says, “You are the God who works wonders!” In Psalm 66 he says, “Come and see the works of God!” God is near to us. God is working among us, even within us. God’s glory is on display in his beloved people and in God’s creative work in the natural world. God’s creativity is expressed through our creativity: art, music, science, discovery, and technology. Sometimes we need to slow down enough to see it.

How do I rediscover wonder? I strive to succeed at this by examining the little details of the world: a leaf, a flower, a bug, a rock, a bird. I strive to be present in conversation with people because I know they are created in the image of God. I intentionally introduce myself to people I’ve never met because they are God’s masterpieces. I take time to contemplate, pray, worship, or journal about the amazing things I see. I try new foods, travel, and hike. I sometimes must force myself out of my routines to experience the wonders of God. How might you discover God’s wonderful gifts in the world so that you might be amazed? Let’s look for and see the wonderful works of God!

STEWARDSHIP/EVANGELISM COMMITTEE

Submitted by Ellen Gruebel, Committee Chairperson

Mark 16:15: He said to them, "Go into all the world and preach the gospel to every creature."

Greetings from the Stewardship/Evangelism Committee! We hope this finds our congregation well! Our combined Committee has some updates.

We're pleased to announce the scheduling of another class of Financial Peace University for the entire congregation for late spring. The class will be held on Wednesday nights beginning May 25th through July 20th (9 weeks) at 6:30 p.m. Each class will last approximately 1-1/2 hours. The location of the class in the church will be announced once we see how many people have registered for the class.

FPU offers online assistance for various lengths of duration for anyone who registers for the class. Depending on how much you pay, the support is as follows: $59 for 3 months; $99 for 6 months; or $129 for 12 months.

The link to register for the class is fpu.com/1149786. The recommendation is that you register fairly close to the class start date because the FPU support period begins at the time you register. Payment will be required online at the time of registration. NOTE: There will be 2 weeks between the time you register and the time your payment information is charged so that you can familiarize yourself with the website.

Additionally, very soon we'll begin working on a Joy of Faith celebration for 2023! It will be wonderful to resume this enjoyable event in our church!

May God bless all with good health and peace!

Never worry about money again with Financial Peace University! It's the proven plan to help you master budgeting, beat debt, and live the life of your dreams. Through nine lessons rooted in biblical wisdom, you'll learn from Dave Ramsey and his team of financial experts.

And now, you can try Financial Peace free for 14 days! Visit fpu.com/1149786 to sign up and learn more. Class starts May 25th.

Thank you to all who helped with this event through set-up, break-down, serving food, or through donations!

EUMC Youth

Submitted by Pastor Eric

Our Youth Group continues to be active and exciting with more than a dozen young people participating in this important ministry. With current events, this past month we talked about some serious issues such as our Christian response to war, and we also discussed racism as it relates to our community. This coming month I am excited that we will be looking at updating the Youth Room.

I encourage any and all young people grades 6-12 to join us for fun activities, service projects, games, and engaging messages. Below you will find our May calendar of events.

- Sunday, May 1st - No youth events, Pastor Eric is on vacation
- Sunday, May 8th - Youth Group 7:00-8:30 p.m. in Weldin Hall
- Sunday, May 15th - Youth Group 7:00-8:30 p.m. in Weldin Hall
- Sunday, May 22nd - Confirmation Class, 7:00-8:30 p.m.
- Sunday, May 29th - No youth events due to Memorial Day

We look forward to continuing to nurture the young people of our church and offer opportunities for growth so that they might come to know their God-given purpose. Please continue to keep us in your prayers. If you have any questions or concerns please email Pastor Eric at pastoreric@elktonumc.org.

BYE, BYE “CLASSIC CHRISTIANS!” SAY HELLO TO “JOY!” (JUST OLDER YOUTH)

On Wednesday, May 4th, a new day of fellowship for those 50 and over begins as JOY (Just Older Youth) starts! JOY is a monthly gathering which will feature presentations by speakers, day trips to places of interest, picnics, activities and so much more. (By the way, we never check IDs, so if you're under 50 and one of JOY's activities looks good, come on and join us!)

The kick-off event is a luncheon on Wednesday, May 4th from 12:00 noon – 2:00 p.m. in Weldin Hall. Because we're still being careful about Covid, we're having a catered lunch from Your Personal Chef. We'll enjoy baked ziti, meatballs, salad, rolls, beverages and desserts – and it will cost you only $10!

Following the meal, we'll have a presentation by local historian Mike Dixon who has been with us many times before and is always great. This time he'll speak to us about “Hidden Gems in Cecil County!”

You'll find sign-up sheets at the kiosks around the church. Sign up by May 1st in order for us to have the right amount of food. Put your completed sign-up sheet and check in the basket next to the offering plate.

FINANCE NEWS

Submitted by Laurie Ruth, Treasurer

As of March 31, 2022, EUMC is still in a positive financial position, even better than 2021, as you can see below. This is largely due to your very generous continued support, but also because of staff changes and careful spending.

The church received very good news from State Farm, the cost of insurance on the building will drop to almost half. We can be very thankful for Paul Humphrey for taking the time to contact State Farm and having someone come out and look at the building. THANK YOU, PAUL!! This very good news comes at a time when so many expenses are going up. As has been said before, the staff tries very hard to keep expenses down, but some things are beyond our control.

With your continued generous support of EUMC, we are able to remain "A place to know Jesus, be known by Jesus, and make Him known to others."

CHRISTIAN VOICES FROM THE PAST

Submitted by Ivan Mehosky

There are great people and events that impacted Christianity in America in the 19th Century. Here is one that is considered one of “The 100 Most Important Events in Christian History” ...1811: The Campbells begin the Disciples of Christ.

Thomas Campbell had been a pastor at a church in northern Ireland before coming to America for health reasons. He settled in western Pennsylvania, where he pastored a congregation belonging to the Seceder Presbyterian Church, a splinter denomination with Scottish roots. Upset with the petty divisions over man-made doctrines, Campbell would allow any Presbyterian to come to his church and take communion, whether they were Seceder or not.

But the presbytery didn't like it one bit, said it went against their by-laws, investigated the matter and condemned Campbell! In response, Campbell wrote the synod, explained his position and they ruled in favor of Campbell and overturned the presbytery's condemnation. But there remained a feeling of bitterness and hostility among Campbell's fellow pastors, so he decided to branch out on his own and start a new church.

To get a better picture, America was still the New World. Its frontier started at the Appalachians and stretched westward. Religiously, it was on the downslope of the Great Awakening revival started by George Whitefield and Jonathan Edwards in the colonies on the East Coast sixty years before and it had spread westward to the 'camp meetings' revivals started in Kentucky around 1800 and still flickered throughout the frontier.

Like any revival, there will be differences and divisions. The revival in the east was more Presbyterian in theology whereas the west more Methodist. The west had a band of frontier preachers with minimal seminary training, the “circuit riders,” who would stand on the back of a wagon to persuade sinners to get right with God.

Campbell held meetings wherever possible - in barns, homes, and fields - and he attracted many followers. Not willing to break away from the established church yet compelled him to move in the direction he was led - biblical and simple. His motto became: “Where the Scriptures speak, we speak; where the Scriptures are silent, we are silent.”

When Thomas's son, Alexander, arrived from Ireland, in 1809, they teamed up and formed the Brush Run Church in 1811 since being denied entry by the Presbyterians. Alexander was a gifted speaker and a good debater, which greatly complimented his father. Due to their position on baptism (full immersion versus sprinkling), they were more Baptist at this point and affiliated with the Redstone Baptist Association in 1812.

Alexander Campbell became a leading figure in the Baptist Church, speaking widely and publishing a periodical, The Christian Baptist, and also established a seminary at Bethany, in western Virginia.

"Getting wisdom is the most important thing you can do. And whatever else you do, get good judgment." Proverbs 4:7

There were differences between the Campbells and Baptists over baptism and tensions grew, so much so, that the Campbellites erased out of the Baptist association and merged with the Christian Church of Barton Stone. This merger then became known as the Disciples of Christ, with over 25,000 members at that point.

As Alexander Campbell's prominence grew, James Madison said of him, "I regard him as the ablest and most original expounder of the Scriptures I ever heard." And so it was that this new denomination attracted over one million members by the 20th Century by their espousal of a simple, biblical faith.
